(c) whether Government are considering installation/conversion of all old telephone exchanges into electronic exchanges at Jodhpur; and

(d) if so, what would be the time limit ?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMUNICATIONS (SHRI P. V. RANGAYYA NAIDU) : (a) The information is laid on the Table of the House as per Annexure as [See Appendix CLXIII, Annexure No. 12].

(b) The department of Telecommunications has formulated a draft eighth five year plan for telecom development and by the end of the plan period it is envisaged to provide telephone connection practically on demand in rural and tribal areas and to contain the waiting period to within two years in large systems. Expansion plan are being drawn to fulfill these objectives.

(c) and (d) An exchange is normally replaced when it becomes life expired. In addition, in the draft 8tb five year plan proposals of the Department of Telecommunications, it is proposed to replace all manual exchanges by March 1994 and replace small six electro-mechanical exchanges (MAX-III and line finder type MAX-II) by the end of 8th plan. Conversion to electronic exchanges will therefore occur progressively.
